

Tuition and Fees

The Palo Alto University is a private, not-for-profit institution of higher education. Tuition and fees are established each year to cover operating expenses and salaries of professors and staff.

Palo Alto University is committed to providing quality education in small class settings. The student/faculty ratio is very low, allowing for extensive contact between professors and students. All professors have obtained the highest degrees in their profession. Students receive excellent academic advising and career counseling. Students in the undergraduate program have access to all student services at both the DeAnza College and PAU campuses. These include library and IT services, food services, career and psychological counseling services, health services, tutoring and writing assistance, access to handicap services, student activities, athletic facilities, etc. All students are assigned to a graduate student mentor, who is available to assist them with coursework and personal advice.

Bachelor of Science in Psychology

Tuition and Fees 2010-11

Tuition $4,380. per quarter.

Fees $1,273. per quarter.

Total Tuition & Fees $5,710. per quarter, or $17,130. per year.

Financial Aid

The Palo Alto University – DeAnza College Program offers institutional grants and participates in federal student aid programs. Academically qualified students who demonstrate financial need will be considered for institutional grants. Grant awards vary in amount.

The United States Department of Education provides a variety of student and parent loans as well as Pell and other grants.

For more information, please visit the PAU Financial Aid Website; contact the PAU Financial Aid Office at financialaid@paloaltou.edu, or call us at (800) 818-6136.