

Psychology & Social Action (PSA) Undergraduate Program: Admissions Requirements

- 90 quarter units or 60 semester credits successfully completed at a community college or other undergraduate institution (to transfer, all courses must have been completed with a C grade or above)
- Completion of the California State University General Education/Breadth Requirements or the CSU/UC IGETC \(Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum\)
- Students who are transferring from private or out of state colleges with different general education requirements should contact the PAU admissions office for more information.
- Successful completion of a course in General Psychology, Experimental Psychology and preferably two other Psychology Courses
- Students should have completed a college level Math course in preparation for a course in Statistics for the Social Sciences
- Students who have not already completed their Life Science requirement, are encouraged to take a course in Human Biology
- A cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above