

For Reference Only – Fall Quarter 2011 Syllabus and Book List Not Yet Available

Professional Issues in Clinical Psychology I (S201-02)
There are no required textbooks for this class.

Time/Place: ~~Thursday 10:00–11:50AM /Bldg. 3 Rm. 1~~

Professor: Robert L. Russell, Office Hours: By Drop in and Appointment

Course Description: This course is designed to promote critical thinking about ethics and suffering, the process and content of professionalization, personal and professional identities, and the positive and negative aspects of the “psychology” industry.

Requirements: Weekly multiple choice quizzes on readings; Final (2 page) paper: An extended reflection on 1 of the readings.

Attendance: Attendance at every class is required unless excused for a serious reason (e.g., too ill to participate, religious holiday); less than 75% attendance is cause for a failing grade

Grievances: See 2010-2011 PAU Student Handbook

October 21st:

Welcome to PGSP: Getting Your Bearings

1. Dr. William Froming, Chief Academic Officer
2. Dr. Luli Emmons
3. Dr. Russell

Expectations for Class: Syllabi, Readings, Paper

October 28th:

Quiz on Assigned Readings: APA Ethical Code.

Discussion: Embodiment of Ethical Code as Cornerstone of Professionalization

November 4th:

Quiz on Assigned Readings: Putting Ethics into the Medical and [Clinical] Record: Tauber

Directed Self-Reflection Protocols in Supervision: Moffett
Transforming Practice Organizations to Foster Lifelong Learning and Commitment of Medical [Clinical] Professionalism

Discussion: Reflective Practice: Individual and Community

For Reference Only – Fall Quarter 2011 Syllabus and Book List Not Yet Available

November 11th:

Quiz on Assigned Readings: Freedom and Community (Chapters 1 and 2.

Discussion: Ethics, Professionalization, and the Everyday World

November 18th:

Quiz on Assigned Readings: Celebrating the Other: (Parts 1 and 2)
Crazy Like Us (Introduction, Chapter 1 and 2)

Discussion: The Others, ME, and Psychology