Re: Documentation for your I-20 Form

Greetings from Palo Alto University! In order to maintain your F-1 status (if you are currently studying in the United States) or to get an F-1 visa to enter the United States, Palo Alto University must issue you a 'Certificate of Eligibility' otherwise known as an I-20 form.

Before we can issue this form, please:

- ❖ Complete the PAU International Student Information Sheet found on page three,
- ❖ Submit a copy of the photo page of your passport and
- ❖ Submit evidence of financial support. Federal regulations require that F-1 applicants provide financial documentation to cover the first year of tuition and living expenses.

Evidence of financial support can be one or more of the following:

- ❖ A letter from a bank indicating the amount of funds in your account (a letter which states that you have an account is not sufficient). The funds may be in more than one account, but all accounts must be liquid (i.e. not investments). The letter must:
  - be in English on bank letterhead
  - recently dated within the last 4 months and
  - signed by a bank official
- ❖ Current monthly statement(s) showing account balances;
- ❖ Letters from scholarship sources

If your family member/sponsor will be financially supporting you, s/he must write and sign a letter that they will financially support you during your studies

If you are currently outside the U.S. please see instructions on 'How to Apply for an F-1 Visa'. https://www.paloalto.edu/sites/default/files/applying\_for\_an\_f-1\_visa\_0\_0.pdf or pasting the link into your browser. You will need to show financial documentation during your visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate.

If you are currently studying in the U.S. on an F-1 visa, please refer to step 3a 'Transfer In' information sheet or paste this link to your browser:
