Articulation Agreement with Palo Alto University

Argosy Education Group, Inc. ("Argosy University"), with offices at 3601 West Sunflower Avenue, Santa Ana, CA 92704, and Palo Alto University, with offices at 1791 Arastradero Road, Palo Alto, CA 94304 have entered into this Articulation Agreement ("Agreement") for the transfer of credits to benefit those students who wish to pursue a degree at Palo Alto University. This agreement applies to Argosy University student who seek enrollment in the Palo Alto University, CACREP-accredited MA Counseling degree program.

Articulation Agreement

Argosy University and Palo Alto University agree to the following:

- Palo Alto University will draft and maintain Course Transfer Guides as an addendum to this Agreement, which identifies the Argosy University courses which satisfy specific courses, or may serve as substitutes, in Palo Alto University's Programs of Study (POS) (see Addendum 1).
- Under this Agreement, Argosy counseling students who completed the courses listed on the Course Transfer Guide, with a grade of "B-" or better for graduate-level courses, will receive transfer credit for those courses that are required in the chosen program of study at Palo Alto University.
- Palo Alto University will work with its regional accreditation agency, state authorities and programmatic accreditors to increase the number of credits that students may transfer in, thus reducing any residency requirements.
- Students must meet Palo Alto University admission and degree requirements for the academic year in which they are admitted.
- Palo Alto University may extend a scholarship or other tuition/fee reduction to students at its discretion.
- Students are required to submit an official transcript from Argosy University in order to complete the transfer of applicable credit.
- Argosy University and Palo Alto University shall review and update the Course Transfer Guide as necessitated by curriculum changes by either party.

Relationship

The parties, Argosy University and Palo Alto University, are not partners or agents with each other. They are not in a joint venture. They are separate and independent of each other and are in no manner responsible for the actions or statements of each other.

Confidentiality

Any information shared between the parties which by their nature should be reasonably understood by the receiving party as confidential or proprietary information, shall remain confidential, to the extent permitted by law.

Marketing

Argosy University and Palo Alto University will work together to promote this Agreement to the participants, which may include on-site events and distribution of marketing materials. The parties may utilize each other's trademarks in connection with promoting the Agreement, provided Palo Alto University pre-approves such use; neither party shall gain any right, title or interest in any name or trademark of the other party.

Palo Alto University will provide both a toll-free number and email address for student inquiries that may be included in promotional materials, advising sheets and the like produced by Argosy University. In addition, Palo Alto University will prepare its Admissions and Financial Aid staff with information about this Articulation Agreement so that Argosy students can apply with ease and transfer expeditiously to Palo Alto University.

Termination and Modification

This Agreement is effective upon the date of the last signature and shall remain in effect for one year. Either party may terminate this Agreement for any reason, or no reason, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the other party. This Agreement is subject to change or modification by mutual written consent between the parties. Any provisions of this Agreement which remain to be performed or by their nature would be intended to be applicable following the expiration or termination of this Agreement shall survive the expiration/termination of this Agreement. This Agreement will terminate automatically in the event that either party fails to maintain its accreditation status.

Notice

Any notice provided for or permitted under this Agreement shall be treated as having been given the next business day after being sent by nationally recognized commercial overnight courier or three business days after being postage prepaid by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the party to be notified or upon receipt if delivered in person. Notices will be sent to the addresses set forth in this Agreement or such other address as may be provided from time to time.

By signing below, each party acknowledges its agreement with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and each signatory represents and warrants that he/she is authorized to sign on behalf of his/her organization to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement. This Agreement and any attachments constitutes the full and complete understanding and agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations, understandings and agreements between the parties related to the subject matter hereof.
