

Psychologist: Southeast Missouri Mental Health Center's Sexual Offender Rehabilitation and Treatment Services (SORTS)

Psychologists Wanted: Build a Career With Us at Southeast Missouri Mental Health Center's Sexual Offender Rehabilitation and Treatment Services (SORTS)

Southeast Missouri Mental Health Center-SORTS, located in beautiful Farmington, MO, provides long-term residential treatment to those adjudicated as Sexually Violent Predators under Missouri statute. SORTS psychologists play a critical role in daily assessment and treatment of our patients, as well as participating in program development and strategic planning. SORTS also is committed to nurturing line psychologists for future positions in program, unit, and facility leadership: we are interested in helping you develop a career in our hospital.

SMMHC is located in Farmington, MO, near four state parks, numerous hiking trails, and opportunities for kayaking and rafting. The area has many amenities, low costs of living, and excellent schools. In addition, we also are home to seven wineries, a community college, nearby historic communities in Ste. Genevieve and Ironton, and other cultural/recreational opportunities. Enjoy the benefits and beauty of a smaller town while living just an hour from the St. Louis Metropolitan area.

The best candidate for these positions will be a psychologist licensed or license-eligible in the state of Missouri (persons seeking psychology post-doctoral residencies also will be considered), who is seeking a career working with this challenging and interesting population and our multidisciplinary team, with an eye toward leadership and growth.

SMMHC offers a regionally-competitive salary and attractive benefits package including annual and sick leave, retirement, health, dental, vision, and life insurance, deferred compensation, cafeteria plan, wellness and "We Save" programs. In addition, we provide partial student loan repayment for licensed psychologists.

Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest and current curriculum vitae via mail or email to:
